Line-up

Ilario Alicante

(Deep Moves / Bosconi – Cocoon – IT)

Ilario Alicante is considered as one of the major new talents of electronic club music. He was born in 1988 in Livorno, Italy. Already as a child he has developed an incredible passion for music. After some time Ilario became familiar with the club world and gained first experiences with mixing and DJing. His early club residencies in Italy - in legendary "Cameretta" and "Pachamama Club" - helped Ilario to improve his musical skills and unique mixing technique. Here, Ilario's career as a DJ started and in a short period of time he became a famous newcomer DJ in Italy. His DJ-sets reached new levels of clubbing experiences. With his early gigs at Circoloco and Tenax Ilario's reputation started to rise outside of Italy. Today he performs in many major clubs in Germany, UK, Spain and Netherlands. But also in South America he is famous for his unique combination of house music and Latin American rhythms. As a producer he possesses this burning passion as well. At the age of 16 Ilario started to produce music and to develop his very own vision of contemporary electronic dance music by integrating various influences and genres to create his unique sound. Up to now Ilario has released 10 releases - one of the most successful EPs was "Living Near Africa", released in 2008 on Cecille Records. Many of his records can be found in the record bags of artists like Sven Vaeth, Ricardo Villalobos, Marco Carola, Luciano, Nick Curly, and many more. Since then Ilario has developed an unparalleled artistic performance as DJ and live performer which made him a welcome frequent guest in some of the best clubs around the globe - from Columbia to Portugal and Italy to UK. So watch out for a venue near you - you will experience a very distinctive musical expression - driving and deep at the same moment!

MINIMONO aka Fabio della Torre & Ennio Colaci

(Bosconi-Telegraph-Tenax-Tuningspork-Ethique-LovelettersFromOslo - IT)

Minimono was born in Florence in 1997 as a multimedia project involving experimentation through music installations, graphic design and theater performances. Only later, in 2002 when dj Fabio Della Torre met rock&roll drummer and electronic producer Ennio Colaci, Minimono became an exclusive and passionate music project. Their intent was melting their personal music experiences into a fresh techno productions with minimal experiments, still keeping a very pleasant funky house touch and combining dancefloor functionality with emphasis on melody and mood. Minimono's unconditioned effort to support and develop the local electronic scene eventually grabbed the attention of the hometown's legendary Tenax Club and its respective label, Tenax Records. After contributing with a powerful track and ep's on the Parisian Telegraph Records, minimono released also on other labels labels such as Tuningspork, Ethique, Safari Electronique, Loveletters From Oslo. Their liveset has struck people's attention for its dynamism, richness of electronic textures and from the duo's ability to manipulate on action a wide range of samples.

Fabio Della Torre

(Minimono/Quitèfrut Bosconi/Tenax – IT)

Fabio Della Torre is the founder of Bosconi records with his friend Ennio Colaci, together producing the project Minimono. Fabio is today a central figure in the evolution of electronic music in Italy, always bringing freshness and innovation, whether he is performing live with Ennio, or spinning records. Raised in an ideal family environment where his dad fed him with classical music, Fabio started learning piano at an early age. However, as he entered the rebel teenage era he got into drums and rock music, playing with local alternative bands. In 1995, introduced to electronic music, captured by the dj culture, Fabio bought turntables and began his adventure as disc jockey. Short after that he inaugurated 'Mint', a night at the prestigious Tenax club in Florenz, whose music policy focused on experimental techno. Thank to his studies in mechanic engineering, he moved to Berlin in 2000-2001. After witnessing the boom of German labels like BpitchControl and Poker Flat, fascinated by new electronic sounds, Fabio returned to Florenz and founded BerlinMitteGroup collective, promoting the 'Berlin-Electro' weekly party at Florenz Ex-Mud club. The season 2002-2003 was very important for him, becoming resident at Ex-Mud and part of RedBullHomeGroove dj team. In that period he started playing alongside with artists like Ellen Allien, Luomo, Sasha Funke, Crane A.K and others. Further and important developments of his artistic profile came in 2004-05, when he founded the night called 'Werk' in Florenz, supporting some of the biggest representatives in the innovative techno/house scene, international names such as Jay Haze, Mathew Johnson, Luciano, Krikor and majesty Daniel Bell. In the same season Fabio started the collaboration with electronic producer Ennio Colaci, forming the project MINIMONO. In 2005-06, he released with David C. his first production under his djname, Magenta ep on Tenax records and Minimono took off also releasing for Tenax, Telegraph, Tuningspork, Ethique and Loveletters from Oslo. More recent is his collaboration with his friend Mattako to the project Quitèfrut with releases on telegraph and Bosconi. Cultivating a 360° vision of German and international dance sound, Fabio has developed a dj style where electronics meets dub techno, where house and funky grooves blend together, shaping a deep and often unpredictable atmosphere, changing at a surprising speed through precise and powerful mixes. Production wise, while Minimono present a funky and musical spirit, Fabio Della Torre focuses more on electronic techno productions, as well as deep and welcoming sound.
